

6 OCT 2011

UNICEF officer appreciates 'save daughter campaign'

BHOPAL: Chief of field offices, UNICEF, Delhi Edward Bidder who was especially present to attend Beti bachao campaign at the CM House said it was a very important initiative and he was quite impressed.

As per a release, he said it was a very important campaign to address the issue of declining sex ratio. It would have a positive impact not only in Madhya Pradesh, but also entire India.

Bidder said UNICEF had been closely working in tandem with Madhya Pradesh and protection of daughters was the common agenda of UNICEF and Madhya Pradesh.

'BETI BACHAO ABHIYAN' WELCOMED

Rashtriya Jagran Manch state president Kameshwar Sharma and general secretary Ajay Gaur have welcomed 'Beti Bachao Abhiyan' launched by chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan in the state.

Kameshwar Sharma said save girl child movement would certainly put an end to discrimination against girl child.

He also sought peoples' cooperation in this regard, informed a Jagran manch press release on Wednesday.

HTC