

- 7 JUN 2013

'MP tribal heritage preserved well'

Bhopal: President Pranab Mukherjee has lauded Madhya Pradesh for preserving tribal heritage efficiently.

Mukherjee was inaugurating the newly constructed Tribal Museum at Shyamla Hills here on Thursday.

He said tribal population was sizeable in Madhya Pradesh and it is neighbouring to seven states. Therefore, it is most appropriate to establish Tribal Museum here to showcase all aspects of tribal life. The artifacts displayed here are astonishingly beautiful and extremely diverse.

Chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan said the lifestyle of tribals is natural and unassuming, tribals do not destroy nature, but make good use of it thus preserving natural wealth with full devotion. TNN