Panchayat poll victory made us humbler, says Chouhan

BHOPAL: Chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan on Saturday wrote on his official blog, "Our landslide victory in the recent panchayat elections has made us humbler."

Chouhan said PM Narendra Modi after winning the 2014 Lok Sabha polls had said, "Sabka

Sath Sabka Vikas", which is the mantra of the state government as well. "I am happy that we have received the wholehearted support and cooperation of people from all sections of society in MP and have been able to serve all without any discrimination..." the CM added. HTC
